

Speaker Release for Video and Audio Recording

As a presenter at the Occupational Medicine Specialists of Canada (OMSOC) 2022 Annual Scientific Meeting on March 11, 2022, I hereby grant the OMSOC, license to capture all of my presentation content through video and audio recording and that such recordings will be owned by the OMSOC. I grant the OMSOC the right to use my content in such recordings as well as in associated material (including but not limited to PowerPoint, handouts and/or video files) in the publishing of event-based materials for/from the event described above for distribution to registered attendees and/or at a later time as educational based materials with other OMSOC stakeholders. The OMSOC may use some or all of these components either in whole or in part, synchronized or not.

I represent and attest that I have the right to grant such permission based on copyright law and that I have obtained permission to use any third-party material for the purposes as set out herein.

I hereby indemnify and hold harmless the OMSOC its directors, officers, agents, employees, clients and all other stakeholders from all copyright claims of every kind on account of such use.
